INTRODUCTION

The Allen Family Papers -- Addition, 1834-1942, is centered around the Allen, Henegar, and Lea families, including Valentine Collins Allen III, Valentine C. Allen IV, Nicholas Q. Allen, Robert Lafayette Allen, Jennie Allen, and William B. Allen of Rhea, Polk, and Meigs Counties, Tennessee.

The papers occupy .96 cubic feet of shelf space, and number approximately 790 items. Single copies of unpublished writings in the Allen Family Papers--Addition may be made for the purposes of scholarly research.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

Valentine Collins Allen IV

Valentine Collins Allen IV was born in Tippah County, Mississippi, on September 2, 1842. He had seven brothers and one sister. After the Civil War, he practiced law in Decatur, Tennessee. On February 13, 1866, Allen married Miss Nancy Emily Ling of Meigs County, Tennessee, daughter of Dr. King of Decatur, and niece of Col. N.J. and Jim Lillard. In 1887, Allen and his wife moved to Dayton, Rhea County, Tennessee. He was active in local affairs, practicing as an attorney in Dayton, Rhea County, Tennessee.

V. C. Allen served in the Tennessee Legislature in 1871 but declined to run for re-election. In 1911, he was appointed by the Governor, as Chancellor of the 12th District Chancery Court. This district was comprised of fifteen counties. In 1912, he was elected to this position without opposition.

Allen wrote a book titled, Rhea And Meigs Counties, Tennessee, In The Confederate War. Copies of this book are located in the Tennessee State Library and Archives, Nashville, Tennessee.

Allen and his wife, Nancy, had five children: Fannie, Jennie, Ann, Will, and Maude. Fannie married Nicholas Broyles; Ann married Floyd Cunnyingham; Billy (Will) married Lucy Henegar; and Maude, the youngest, married Walter Haywood Worth. Daughter Jennie never married.

William B. Allen

William B. Allen was born on June 5, 1869 in Decatur, Tennessee, the son of Valentine C. and Nancy Emily (King) Allen. William B. Allen was educated in Decatur, Tennessee. He moved to Dayton, Tennessee, in September 1886. After relocating in Dayton he began working at the Dayton City Bank as a teller. He was elected cashier in April of 1889, and remained cashier of the Dayton City Bank and the First National Bank of Dayton for about five years. Later he accepted a position as book-keeper with Dayton Coal and Iron Company,

Ltd. While employed at the coal and iron company he was appointed Circuit Court Clerk by Judge Smallman in October 1899, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Charles G. Gillespie. He was nominated by the Democratic Convention to succeed himself in the spring of 1900, and was elected in the August general election. He was again nominated, and reelected for a full term of four years, without opposition in 1902.

William Allen was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and was a Knight of Pythias. He was twice elected Chancellor Commander of Hope Lodge #27. He also held the position of deputy Grand Chancellor. Governor McMillan said of Mr. Allen, "...as clerk of the court Mr. Allen was pronounced the best on his circuit. He was efficient, courteous, and accommodating. As a candidate he was a Democrat, but as an official he knows no party, sect, creed, or condition in the discharge of his duty."

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The Allen Family Papers--Addition, 1834-1942, is composed of accounts, bills, notes, and receipts, account books, cards, certificates, clippings, correspondence, financial documents, forms, invitations, land records, deeds, grants, indentures, legal documents, agreements, contracts, letters of administration, letters testamentary, power of attorney, statements of expenditures, settlement of estate, letter of introduction, licenses, memorabilia, notes, notices, photographs, printed materials, reports, and biographical sketches.

The bulk of this collection is comprised of deeds and grants belonging to Valentine Collins Allen (1842-1915), Chancellor of Rhea County Chancery Court, and his son William B. Allen (1899-n.d.), Clerk and Master of the Rhea County Circuit Court. A few of the land records involve other family members such as H. B. Henegar and F. W. Lea. The deeds are tracts and parcels located in Bledsoe (1907-1908), Blount (1889), Bradley (1877), Meigs (1886), Rhea (1887-1911), Hawkins (1834), counties, Tennessee, and the Ocoee District (1849-1853) in Tennessee. The grants describe tracts and parcels granted by the State of Tennessee to Francis W. Lea. These grants are primarily in Polk County, Tennessee with sections located in Bradley County, Tennessee.

The correspondence is mostly from family members, friends, and professional colleagues. A majority of the family correspondence is comprised of letters from Jennie Allen, Lucy Cunnyngnam Downer, John M. Lea, and Edward Henegar.

Included in the collection is the settlement of the estate of Miss Jennie K. Allen (1943-1947). William B. Allen was the executor of the estate. Miss Jennie was the sister of Will B. Allen and resided with him before her death. The settlement includes real estate, stocks and bonds, mortgages, jointly owned property and household property. There are several pieces of correspondence concerning the settlement.

There is a letter of introduction dated Feb. 1, 1874, for V.C. Allen, signed by Judge John B. Hoyle, Judge of the 4th Judicial Circuit in the State of Tennessee, D.M. Key, Chancellor of the Third Chancery Division in the State of Tennessee, and J. A. Frazier, Attorney General of the Fourth Circuit of Tennessee.

There are several maps in the collection spanning the years 1858-1914. Many of these maps show lands granted in Polk County, Tennessee and Bradley County, Tennessee. A pencil map of Charleston, Tennessee (June 19, 1914) is included in the collection as well as a 1858 map of the Copper Lands in Carroll County, Virginia.
